PETITIONING THE COURT

- ☐ To issue a warrant
☒ To issue a summons

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number      Nature of Noncompliance

- 1                      The offender has violated the standard supervision condition which states 'You shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.'

On September 2, 2011, the offender was arrested in Jersey City, New Jersey on a charge of distribution of a controlled dangerous substance. .

- 2                      The offender has violated the standard supervision condition which states 'You shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.'

During an office visit on March 27, 2012, the offender admitted associating with Peter Ventricelli, a known felon.

3 The offender has violated the special supervision condition which states
'ALCOHOL/DRUG TESTING AND TREATMENT'

You shall refrain from the illegal possession and use of drugs, including prescription medication not prescribed in your name, and the use of alcohol, and shall submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to ensure compliance. It is further ordered that you shall submit to evaluation and treatment, on an outpatient or inpatient basis, as approved by the U.S. Probation Office. You shall abide by the rules of any program and shall remain in treatment until satisfactorily discharged by the Court. You shall alert all medical professionals of any prior substance abuse history, including any prior history of prescription drug abuse. The Probation Officer shall supervise your compliance with this condition.'

On June 27, 2012, the offender tested positive for marijuana during a random urine screen conducted by the undersigned officer via a five-panel instant test. The offender admitted to having smoked the substance on June 26, 2012.

4 The offender has violated the standard supervision condition which states 'You shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer.'

When questioned regarding the positive marijuana results, the offender reported that he smoked marijuana in furtherance of his cooperation with the Hudson County Prosecutor's Office, when meeting with the target of the investigation. The undersigned officer subsequently confirmed that the offender was never directed to meet with the target of the investigation on June 26, 2012.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

RE: SIRYANI, Hakem
Docket No.: 11-00112-001
Notice of Amended Petition for Warrant or Summons for Offender Under Supervision and Amended Violation of Probation Report

Dear Judge Chesler:

On June 1, 2011, Mr. Siryani appeared before Your Honor for sentencing on a charge of sale or receipt of stolen goods, securities, moneys, etc., and he received a two-year term of probation. The following special conditions were imposed: 75-days location monitoring, mental health evaluation, alcohol/drug testing/treatment, and self-employment restriction. He was also ordered to pay a $100 special assessment.

On September 2, 2011, just three months after sentencing, Mr. Siryani was arrested by the Jersey City Police Department and charged with distribution of a controlled dangerous substance. According to the arrest report, the offender was observed selling 100 percocet/endocet pills to a confidential informant. He was held in the Hudson County Correctional Institution on $75,000 bail.

On September 8, 2011, the offender was released after posting the bail with the assistance of a bail bondsman. On January 30, 2012, he was indicted by the Hudson County Prosecutor's Office under Indictment Number 2215-12-11. The case is pending adjudication.

Since submission of the initial petition requesting a summons (Form 12C) and violation of probation report (Form 12D), the offender has had further issues of noncompliance. The amended Form 12C and Form 12D are enclosed for Your Honor's review and consideration.
